Mekomee Eats is all about cooking memories and creating community around food. They bring together talented Israeli chefs with hungry and curious New Yorkers, who come together to learn, explore, and, most importantly, taste the colorful spices and foods that the Middle Eastern kitchen has to share.

Bubbie's Kitchen is a unique culinary offering of the Y and Camp Twelve Trails, made possible by generous funding by The Covenant Foundation. The program teaches children and their families about Jewish culinary traditions, art, and history from around the world.
